

Join Us for the 250th Anniversary of the Worthington Meeting House!

May 31, 2025

9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

723 Worthington Ridge, Berlin

Special live performance by the Theatre Guild of Berlin!

Outdoor play from 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.
Bring lawn chairs or blankets

Sit back, immerse yourself, and enjoy a reenactment of a tumultuous period in Berlin's history. Learn of the discord that arose among townspeople during the 18th century, which escalated to a level that required action by the sheriff of Farmington. Meet the three arbitrators from the Massachusetts Bay Colony who were charged with resolving the dispute, witness the proceedings, and hear their decree. (Audience participation.)

- * Take advantage of this rare opportunity to see inside the Worthington Meeting House!
- * Learn about the House's history and our plans for the future of this town-owned building
- * Tour the Berlin Historical Society's 1771 House and Esther Woodruff Memorial Butterfly Garden
- * Uncover long-hidden signatures and initials carved decades ago in the newly restored Worthington School cupola
- * Take selfies with our life-sized George Washington

Free and open to the public
