The concert is free and open to the public.

The concert band is comprised of 30 musicians, performing on wind, percussion, and rhythm instruments. This year’s concert program highlights the story of military service, referenced by musical compositions that reflect historically significant battles across various conflicts involving the United States.

Please come early to setup your lawn chairs and take a walk around the America’s Wars Walkway to see and learn why we have the Freedoms we have today.

The 102nd Army Band will be set up by the Gazebo right next to the pond.

Guests are invited to bring lawn chairs and picnic baskets as they perform for you a variety of patriotic and today’s pop tunes.
