

BERLIN POLICE DEPARTMENT

GOOD CONDUCT AWARD

OFFICER RICHARD SCHREINER

The Good Conduct Award is presented to an officer who, at any time, or over a period of time, sets an exemplified example for other members of the Department, or who displays a positive image of themselves, privately and professionally, which reflects positively on the image of the Berlin Police Department to the public. Those words describe Officer Richard Schreiner. Officer Schreiner has been a Berlin Police Officer for 36 years. In those 36 years Officer Schreiner has received over 60 commendations from citizens, businesses, & schools. From Chiefs of Police in Berlin & Meriden, the Berlin Police Commission, UpBeat, DARE, and the American Legion. Also from the Connecticut DOT, Connecticut Transit, the Berlin Fire Department, MidConn Bank, Newington Children's Hospital and others. In each of those commendations the outstanding theme was the gratitude shown towards Officer Schreiner and his willingness to do anything for anyone at anytime. Officer Schreiner's co-workers have also experienced his kindness. Officer Schreiner is always willing to come to work early and stay late. He can always be depended on for assistance whether it is a back-up on a call or help with an investigation. Officer Schreiner's is a willing friend, whether on or off-duty. Despite difficult challenges in his personal life, he always displays a positive outlook and continues to put others before himself.

For setting an extremely positive example for his brother and sister officers, Officer Richard Schreiner is recognized with the Good Conduct Award.

Chief Paul Fitzgerald

May 7, 2014